Dear Judge Forrest:

We represent Clearstream Banking, S.A. ("Clearstream"), a defendant in the above-referenced action. We write in compliance with the Court's February 24, 2014 Order directing that any party objecting to unsealing the Complaint commencing this case shall notify the Court no later than February 26, 2014.

Clearstream does object to unsealing the Complaint, which contains information provided pursuant to and in reliance upon one or more protective orders. In addition, as Clearstream has advised the Court, Clearstream believes that the language of the Complaint could be misconstrued in certain respects, in a manner unintended by plaintiffs that could be harmful to Clearstream. We and counsel for Banca UBAE are discussing the matter with counsel for plaintiffs.

Clearstream therefore respectfully requests that the Complaint remain under seal until motions to dismiss have been resolved, or the Complaint amended. If the Court declines to maintain the sealed status of the Complaint, we respectfully request that the complaint be redacted before it is unsealed, and that the parties be given time to agree upon the redactions, a process which is underway.

Respectfully,

Karen E. Wagner

Liviu Vogel, Esq.

Ordered

The Complaint shall remain sealed until further order of the Court. The parties should be aware, however, that the Court's decision(s) on motions to dismiss are very ~~tip~~ likely to need to quote the complaint extensively and will not be under seal.
